TRADITION

A deeply meaningful token of the senior's relationship with his school, the class ring symbolizes four years of accomplishment which have helped him to mature and realize the purpose of his life. The Viking head represents his strength of character and loyalty to St. Joseph High School and the Marianist seal reminds him of his dedicated instructors and the sense of responsibility which they impart to him. The school seal denotes four years of his career spent in the eternal quest for knowledge.

TO TWO

Fr. William J. Chaminade

It was 200 years ago last April 8th when William Joseph Chaminade was born in Perigueux, a small French city about 60 miles northeast of Bordeaux. With Father Chaminade was born a dream, dormant for twenty years, materialized during the French Revolution. In 1817 he founded the Society of Mary with seven members; two priests, one teacher, two businessmen, and two tradesmen.

To effect such an all-embracing ideal of the apostolate, the first members devoted themselves to education on every level from elementary grades to the university, also in orphanages, technical schools and teacher-training schools. As a complement to this formal education, the Society has never ceased its efforts to train within a Sodality, lay apostles who in turn are able to extend the Marianist sphere of influence everywhere.

Toward the end of his life, Father Chaminade told of the ardent love for Mary that inflamed his soul: "For a long time now, I have lived and breathed only to propagate the name of Mary." Not content with making Mary loved through his personal efforts, he embodied his ideal in a Society, where Total Consecration to Mary could find complete and lasting expression. Thus it is that there extends down to our day the spirit of Father Chaminade, founder of the Marianists.

HIGHLY DEDICATED MEN

Mr. John P. Doyle

Death usually comes at an old age. It is expected and sometimes prayed for by those who live in agony. It is when death comes to a young person that the question why is asked.

John Doyle was 24, in the prime of life, and suddenly he is called. It seems a shame when you consider how much more good he could have brought into the world through his influence but again it seems a blessing that he was called before he had suffered from the materialism and inconsideration of the world.

It has been said that everything has a purpose. I can't help but think that one of the purposes for Mr. Doyle's death would be the example that he has set and his achievements in only 24 years. It makes me think of what I could do if I applied myself as he did. He was a model Catholic layman with firm Christian convictions — a perfect example of what could be accomplished in the lay apostolate.

Truly it is a great sorrow to his parents but it must also be a great consolation to know that they had brought a soul into the world and sent it back to its Maker in much better condition than they had received it.

OUR SPIRITUAL

Each year for the preceding seven years, a page of the Viking has been dedicated to Archbishop Hoban and the excellent effects stemming from his persevering efforts toward the improvement of the Diocese. Again this year we take great pleasure in presenting a photograph of our industrious prelate to give him a small recognition for his outstanding achievements. His qualities are basically those which extend themselves to us through his striking picture: kindness, sincerity, zeal, persistence, integrity and piety.

Diligence, manifesting itself through hard work, strikes the keynote for his past 39 years of service and leadership throughout the Cleveland Diocese. He is truly a distinguished man to whom many are forever indebted.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

What has happened to you during these four years?

It is our hope that you have learned to respect and cherish the intellectual life, that you have grown to place proper emphasis on your physical and spiritual development. You entered in 1957 as a boy; we trust that you are leaving in 1961 on the doorstep of manhood, aware of your vocation in life, solidly prepared for any eventuality. May you never forget that you are being most manly, most mature when you are facing your greatest struggles in life—and struggles will be with you constantly: you must overcome falsehood with truth, weakness with strength, pessimism with optimism, mediocrity with sanctity, cowardice with courage, selfishness with love, treachery with loyalty, discouragement with perseverance.

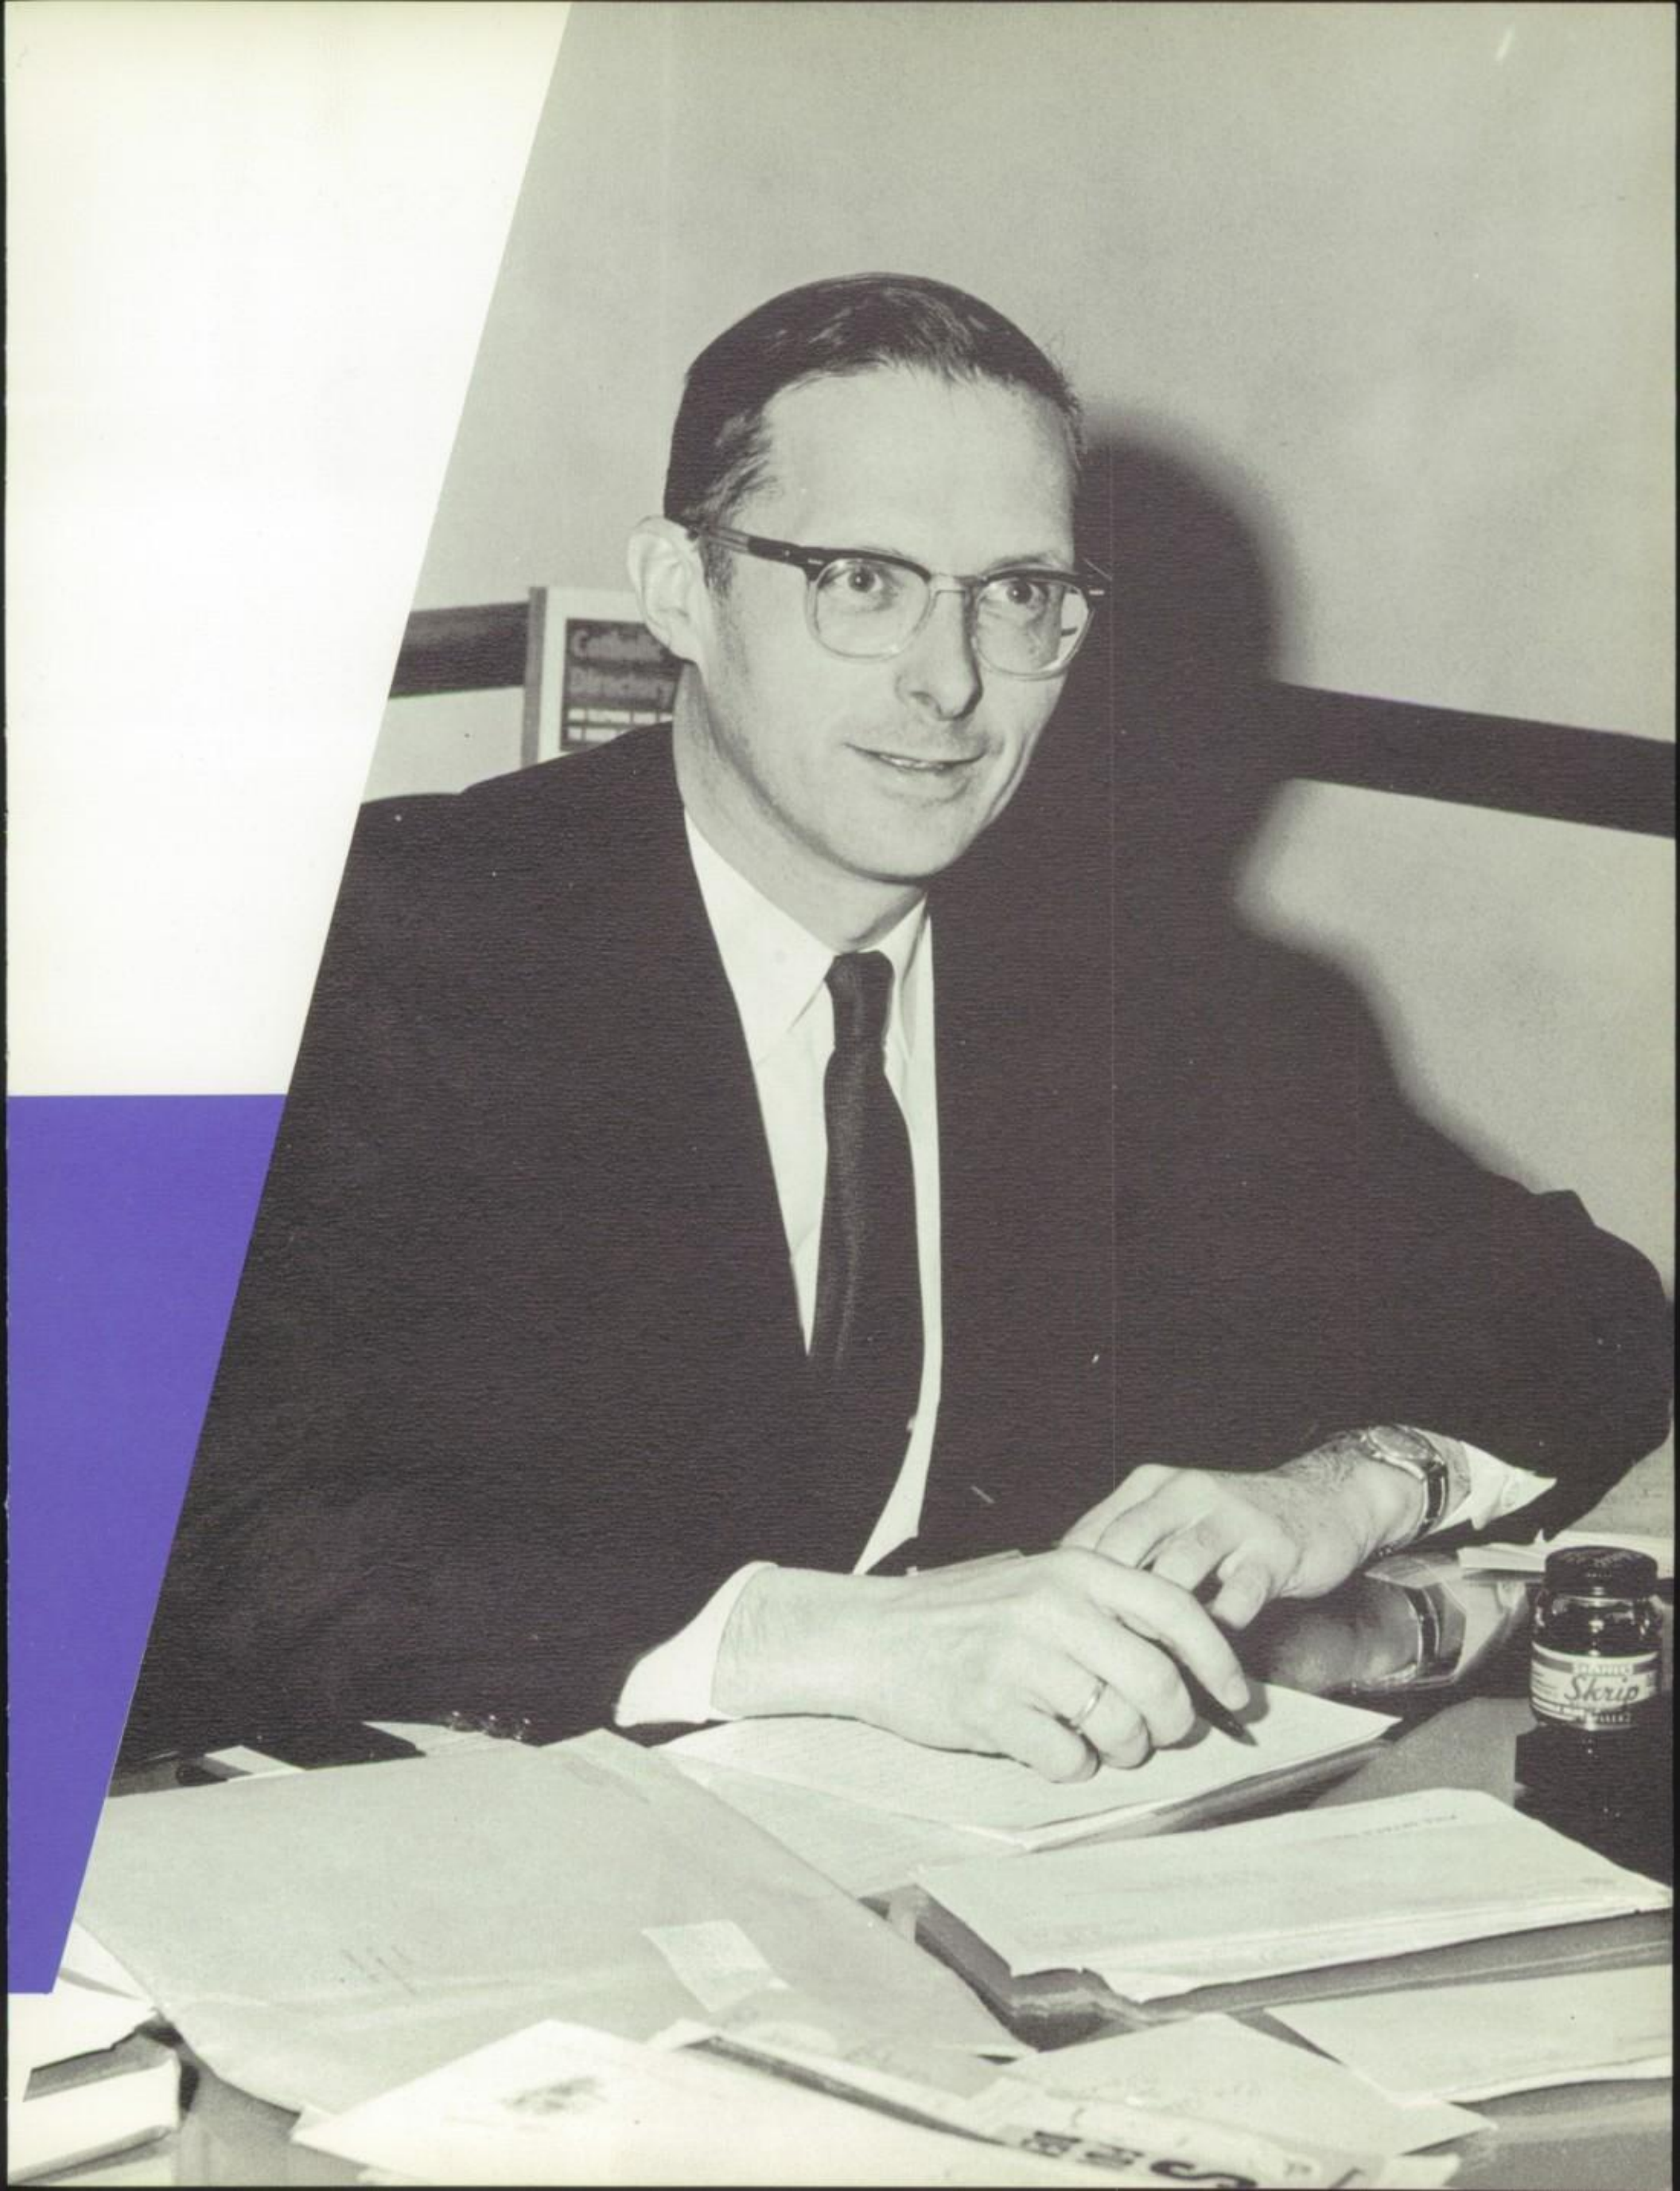

A Christian of today must be exceptionally strong and generous if he is to fulfill his God-given mission. Even more, he must be intellectually and socially competent for the role of leadership which is his. There is no room for the mental or spiritual midget. In a man of courage and moral strength, the virtues of fortitude and wisdom will find a firm foundation, and the union of human virtue and supernatural virtue will make of you a true apostle.

The world is waiting for you: make sure that you bring to it all of the equipment which you have been offered a chance to develop at St. Joseph High School. May Our Lord and His Mother remain for you a source of inspiration and strength as you leave us to move on to the next chapter of the Christian adventure.

In Christ and Our Lady

Stanley J. Mathews, S.M.

VICE PRINCIPAL

The most recent addition to our administration staff is Brother Boeckerman, who fills the position which is second in importance at any high school, that of vice-principal. In this capacity he is straightforward, unassuming, and understanding and commands the respect of all who know him.

Being in charge of general student conduct and discipline while at the same time teaching two math classes necessitates an extremely tight schedule which would probably befuddle even Socrates, this explains the meditative countenance which presents itself as he passes through the halls.

FACULTY

Forming the connecting link between the student and the knowledge which lies before him, the faculty seeks to instill in the men of St. Joseph the same enthusiasm to learn a subject as motivates them to teach it. They impart all that is humanly possible of the wisdom and experience they have gained throughout their lifetime to the student and try to form each as a steadfast, educated Catholic youth.

FATHER ELDON G. REICHERT, S.M., our beloved Chaplain and capable Guidance Director. For the past seven years Father Reichert has been working intimately with the students in order to help them realize their assets and opportunities more clearly. He has been the driving force behind the development of our competent Guidance Department.

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT

Constantly helping students with their problems and decisions is the important task of the guidance department. Because of this branch of our school administration, each student feels that there is at least one place where he can find the answers to those things which puzzle or are not clear to him. This department places itself at the disposal of the students for interviews concerning perspective colleges, a proper vocation for the individual, difficulties in school work, and any other pertinent topic about which the student desires information. Its extensive testing program and file of student data forms the basis for the counseling which is done by our lay and religious faculty.

UNDERCLASSES

During their underclass years, the men of St. Joseph learn what it means to be a Viking. By their participation and cooperation in the activities of their school they form a Christian attitude toward education, sports, social life and individual achievements. Throughout these formative years they gain the attributes which will allow them to wear their class ring proudly.

St. Joseph High School has been dedicated to the Glorious and ever-watchful Spouse of the Mother of God, and Christ's Foster Father, Joseph. In St. Joseph, every student has found a worthy and imitable Friend, and under such an influence has been directed to a good Catholic life.

SODALITY

The Sodality dedicated their entire year to the study and application of Christian Leisure Time. Aiming for a betterment in organization, all Marianist Sodalities changed and standardized the core of the Sodality. This consists of seven offices: Sodality Prefect Bob Ross; Prefect of Zeal Jeff Gregor; Prefect of Education Joe Rigot; and Prefect of Temporalities Ed Krall, with John Drew acting as Council Secretary. Representatives to the Council were Jim Murphy representing the Junior division and Steve Troychak the Sophomore division. Guiding these officers and their more than 150 fellow sodalists, was Sodality Moderator Father Paul Reich, S.M. The Rosary Rally, sponsoring of a Dance, selling Christmas cards and rosaries were but a few of their self-supporting projects. It also afforded its members Days of Recollection, Study Days, and a trip to Chester, Pa., for the Marianist Sodality Convention, this year attended by Ross, Gregor, and Krall.

Sodality Prefect Bob Ross hands Fr. James Imhof a spiritual bouquet on the occasion of his transfer to Nigeria in December. With him went another faculty member, Brother Michael Cain.

Whether it be at the daily student Mass in the chapel, benediction after school, or a special serving assignment on a weekend, the Viking members of the Knights of the Altar are ready, willing, and able to perform their duties.

The Knights of the Altar assist the priests and religious faculty in all spiritual functions throughout the year—from the opening Mass to the graduation ceremonies. At their weekly meetings on Tuesday mornings, future serving assignments and current Church events are planned and discussed for efficient operation. This year's officers are: Bob Poje, President; Tim Robertson, Vice-President; Jim Vranekovic, Secretary; and Tim Pearson, Treasurer. The moderator is Bro. Robert Goubeaux, S.M. The student sacristans are Tim Hartory and John Henry.

ROSARY RALLY

In honor of the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary, the Second Annual Rosary Rally was held in October. This religious assembly, which took place in the gym, began with a living rosary composed of Student Council and school activity representatives. Each of the "beads" led the student body in the recitation of his corresponding prayer. Solemn benediction of the Blessed Sacrament brought to a close one of the most impressive assemblies of the year.

RETREATS

The First Annual Closed Retreat for Seniors of St. Joseph High School was held this year at the Diocesan Retreat House. It placed the seniors in an atmosphere without distractions, in which they had a continuous period of time to consider the important decisions that they will encounter in the next few years. Four retreats were made, each consisting of two senior classes. The retreat masters were Fr. Joseph McCoy, S.M., Fr. Richard Knuge, S.M., Fr. John Mulligan, S.M., and Fr. Joseph Story, the assistant director of the retreat house.

The three day underclass retreats were held at school as usual. They were conducted by Fr. Robert Backherms, S.M., for the Freshmen and by Fr. Charles Hofstetter, S.M., for the Juniors and Sophomores.

As Catholic education seeks to build the "whole" Christian man, extracurricular activities play a valuable part in attaining that end. Through the social contacts received in participation of the individual Viking in the various activities, his personality is stimulated and developed. With such training behind him he can enter into life better prepared to meet the rigors and competition that the modern world offers.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the competent guidance of Brother Philip Eichner, S.M., this year's Student Council has touched many phases of school life. Working in close unity with faculty and students, this organization, under the leadership of President Terry Thomas, Vice-President Robert Kraft, Secretary Bill Valis, Executive Secretary Paul Nagode, and Treasurer Donald Patt, brought about many firsts in the school's history.

A student loan program was set up, basketball dances and night rallies were held, along with acts of charity, such as collecting 35 baskets of food for the poor at Thanksgiving.

GLEE CLUB

"O. K. Boys! Pay Attention!"

The patient perseverance in daily practice, the voices of '60 Vikings and the musical skill of Bro. Aaron, have combined to bring St. Joseph High School recognition and praise from both the student body and the public.

The addition of the excellent Villa Angela chorus provided a unique and most pleasing supplement to the fine Viking Glee Club.

Highlighting the year was the Spring Concert, while the diocesan music festival and the student Christmas program also proved very excellent. The great fruit of this year was the school's first musical "Tom Sawyer" in which many of the members participated.

Led by Senior Ken Schuman, the 1960-61 Viking band, most colorful ever to trumpet the fight songs of St. Joseph, began their training at summer band camp. Playing and marching at all football games, Mr. Novak's lads brightened the intermissions with their formations and drills on the field.

Later in the year this large organization divided itself into a concert band which entertained both students and parents during the Christmas season, and a dance band, called the "Vikings" which played for many dances and the musical "Tom Sawyer."

"Let's see if you can't hit that note this time, Joe."

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Being represented for the first time in the Viking, the Father Weisner Chapter of the National Honor Society is a relatively new student organization. It was founded early in 1960 after obtaining a charter from the National Council.

The purpose of this activity is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, promote worthy leadership, encourage the development of student character and stimulate the desire to render service to St. Joseph High School.

Membership is reserved to those students who fulfill the objectives of the society and are willing to propagate them among others.

The officers of the National Honor Society: J. Drew, J. Hurley, and J. Rigot plan the next meeting.

1961 VIKING STAFF

The 1961 VIKING is the product of many, many long hours of work by a staff composed of the best qualified men in each field. Without their unceasing assistance this publication would be impossible.

NORSEMAN

Using the prize winning staff of '59-'60 as a launching pad the 1960-61 NORSEMAN advanced considerably in its search of journalistic perfection. With an irrepressible senior quartet of Dave Pfriem, Jeff Gregor, Joe Rigot and John Trojanski serving as associate editors, and a very nervous, aged by deadlines, editor-in-chief Jerry Pockar, the NORSEMAN somehow succeeded in escaping both the battles of the deadline and the printer relatively unscathed. Furthermore, they even turned out some competent journalistic products in the offing.

Fortifying the standard format with the addition of a column from the local girls' schools, sports and college review columns, and a series of interviews with theatrical and political celebrities, the NORSEMAN polished its product and brought continued service as St. Joseph's literary voice. The sports, literary, and election supplements begun successfully last season were continued with equal success.

AVIATION

Associated with the Radio Club, the aviation class is the latest addition to our scientific curricula. It meets with Bro. Michael Stimac, S.M., twice a week before school on Tuesdays and Wednesdays for a total of three class periods. The class deals with a variety of aviation-linked subjects. Included are such topics as aerial navigation, flying procedure, power plant performance, aircraft construction, rocketry, weather, and associated mathematics. What makes this class unique is the fact that 10 percent of class time is spent flying in Cessna 172 aircraft. With students navigating, flights have been made to Akron, Sandusky, Dayton, Pittsburgh, Niagara Falls and various other points.

RADIO CLUB

The Radio Club continued its record of spectacular science work as it reached for the moon. Using teletypes, 80 element beam antennas, kilowatts of transmitted power and HRO receiving equipment, the boys continued to run tests bouncing their signal off the moon on 144 megacycles.

The Club also obtained two first class commercial licenses, many amateur tickets and carried on the annual vandal patrol at Halloween with the Cleveland Police. A contribution to science was made by giving an excellent show and discussion of electronics for the advanced students of the diocese at Fenn College in Cleveland.

Although still comparatively new, the Future Teachers of America have become completely organized and are now functioning in the processes of tutoring, replacing missing teachers, study hall supervision, correcting papers, and helping in the conduction of the eighth grade testing program.

Its success is due to the excellent supervision of Brother C. Wentker, S.M., and the capabilities of its officers: Ray Paulin, President; James Vranekovic, Vice-President; Frank Tamburello, Secretary, and James Aleckna, Treasurer.

SPEECH • SCIENCE

A new addition to the school is the Science Club. This year it is under the leadership of Adrian Aveni, President; Joseph Gaizutus, Vice-president; and Edward Gutman, Secretary. Brother Philip Aaron, S.M., is the moderator of the future scientists, whose purpose is to promote greater interest and knowledge in the fields of science. The thirty-five members meet bi-monthly during which time they perform various experiments and useful information is gathered.

SERVICE CLUB

The Vikings are restless to-night.

"I'm sorry sir. We're not allowed to sell anything over 3.2 gallons."

The Service Club, being active in many school functions, has become influential in the success of many activities requiring student manpower. Under the excellent guidance of the club's moderator, Bro. Joseph Streiff, S.M., the service club performs jobs like selling tickets, ushering, cloak-room attending, refreshment serving, and various other tasks which go unnoticed before the student body but add to the success of an activity. The members of the club distinguish themselves by their Eisenhower jackets of Columbia blue and scarlet; colors which they are indeed proud to wear.

CHESS CLUB

The Stamp Club was organized with its prime purpose of helping the Marianist Missions. Stamp collecting is a hobby for relaxation and at the meetings the real fun of stamp collecting is laid wide open to the members. Its members can be seen at the meetings buying and exchanging stamps and gathering information on new issues obtained.

This year's edition of the Chess Club is composed of twenty members, most of which are freshmen. Led by their officers, J. Kitzmiller, President; B. Moss, Vice-President; L. D'onle, Treasurer; B. Arthur, Secretary; they have compiled a fine record in interscholastic competition. Their moderator is Bro. C. Wentker, S.M.

BOOSTER CLUB

Bearing the brunt of the school's spirit needs, the Viking Booster Club produced bigger and better signs, banners, and posters than ever before. Members spent long afternoons and late evenings working on projects for coming events. Acres of paper and gallons of paints were used in numerous spirit banners, using 36 inch letters and lengths of up to 75 feet. This year silk screening operations were vast and the quality of all Booster projects was emphasized.

"Egad, we've done it again!" cries R. Meadows as E. Moser has plastered himself . . . and upside too!

ARCHERY

With the sparkling blue waters of Lake Erie in its back yard, The Viking Boating Club has numerous chances to utilize the skill of true sea-faring Vikings. Under the leadership of Mr. D'Alanno, the club has been able to gain a full knowledge of America's fastest growing outdoor sport. In the spring, the Viking fleet sets sail for the open waters to enjoy boating, swimming, fishing, and water skiing. Each summer a cruise is undertaken so all members can enjoy the freedoms of the open water.

With the addition of the recently organized Archery Club to the ever-growing list of school activities, a chance will be given to the many boys who enjoy hitting the mark with precise accuracy to show their ability to fellow members and possibly to other schools later. The officers of the club are: B. Jevnikar, President; D. Louie, Vice-President; and R. Kline, Secretary. Mr. D'Alanno is the club moderator.

BOATING

The members of the boating club were unable to "shape up" so they prepare to "ship out."

The Mother's Club is truly one of the most active organizations of St. Joseph High School. Membership is open to any mother of a student of St. Joseph. The meetings are held on the third Monday of each month excluding July and August.

The Guild sponsors a big card party in February from which this year's proceeds went for the repair of the school loud-speaker system. They join forces with the Dad's Club to make a success of the annual Fall Festival which takes place in October. At the end of the year on the week before Graduation, the Mother's Guild sponsors a Mothers and Sons Mass and Communion Breakfast.

Striving on behalf of the welfare of the school, the St. Joseph High School Dad's Club has kept a schedule containing various activities which have helped improve the relationship between the faculty, dads, and students. Of these are the annual Dads' and Sons' Communion and Breakfast, the Sunday bowling league for faculty, dads, and sons. The monthly meetings have been highlighted by such speakers as Colonel Higbee of the diplomatic corps of the U. S. Government, and Tom Field, a well known newscaster from a local television station. The officers of the 1960-1961 Club are: President, Mr. L. Visconti; Vice-President, Mr. K. Robertson; Secretary, Mr. R. Lieb; and Treasurer, Mr. J. Beers. The moderator is the schools treasurer, Bro. Herman J. Thaner, S.M.

SPORTS

At many high schools, when talking of an education, this talk often limits itself to the activities of the classroom only. At St. Joseph High School education serves the well-rounded man, a man developed spiritually, mentally, and physically. The following pages depict the physical opportunities offered to every Viking ranging from football and basketball to golf and tennis.

The travels of an enemy back come to a sudden end.

1960-61 has left us with many memories of which we are very proud. One of these is the memory of the dynamic Viking football squad, a squad fielded by Coach Bill Butbrod consisting of nineteen seniors.

Rated number one in Northern Ohio and undefeated in their first eight games, St. Joseph boasted one of the heaviest lines in the state, a line with such bulwarks as Higgins, Gilroy, Jeray, Maglicic, Pierce, Sheck, and Vitantonio.

A team cannot function well without an arm to throw the balls and hands to catch it. Our team functioned and well thanks to our rifle-armed, signal-calling quarterback Joe Rudolph, and the capable Viking hands of ends Rainone, Zalokar, and Perusek and scat-back Daniels.

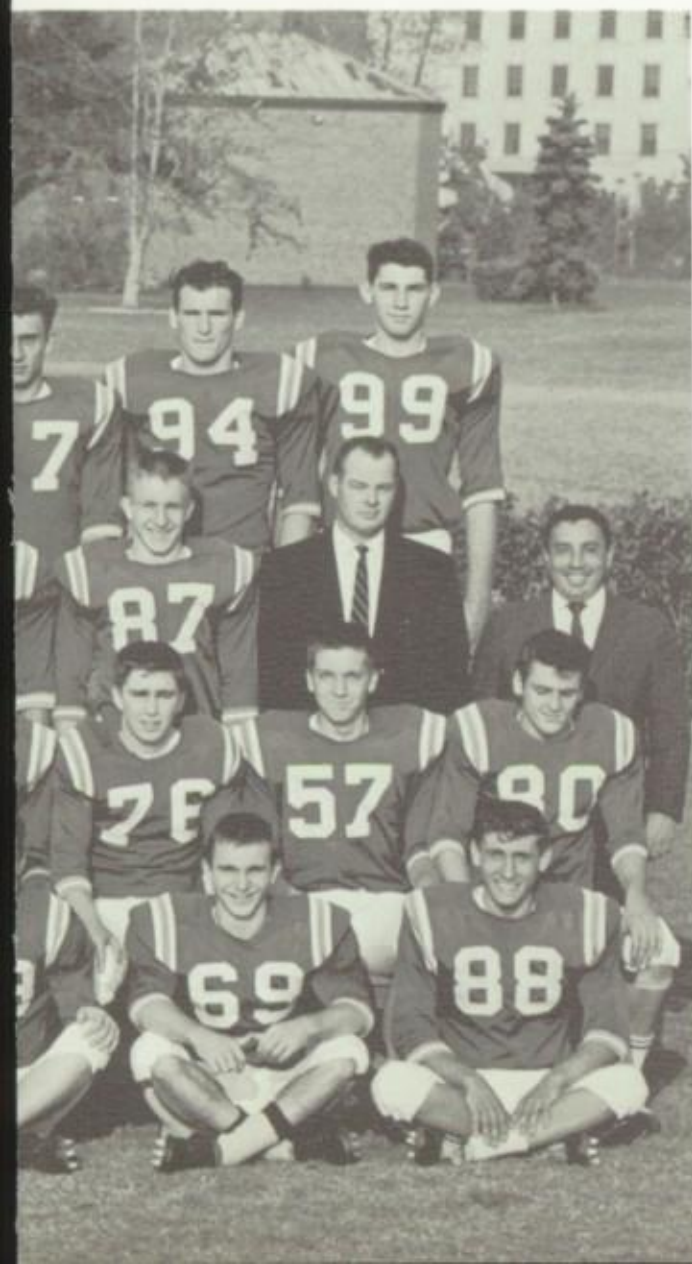

Thanks to our touchdown twins, Valis and Jones, who combined for a total of 1,345 yards gained and 21 touchdowns, many a time St. Joseph fans thrilled to the call, "First down, ten yards to go, St. Joe."

Not every position in a football machine is recorded in the limelight. Oftentimes, an offensive tackle or center's clutch block or a defensive back's key positioning on a pass play, goes without notice. Such were the undying efforts of such outstanding Vikings as Kopriva, Melle, DeMell, Rich, and Macholl.

We all hope for improvement next year, but we cannot help but think how difficult it will be to become better than Cleveland's best, a feat accomplished by our 1960 Varsity. Thanks team.

RALLIES

Mrs. Khrushchev and Fidel enjoy some good mountain brew while Premier Nicky expounds on his travels.

The Rally Committee, under the direction of Joe Farrell, has tried to increase the spirit through their impressive rallies.

These rallies consist of an opening introduction by a student, a brief talk by one of the coaches, a hilarious sequence arranged by Farrell's boys, and a closing ceremony consisting of the singing of the "Alma Mater" and a prayer for the success and safety of the team.

The results of their drive to increase the school spirit will only be decided by the actions of the students of St. Joseph High School.

Hank Zalokar, captain of the 1960-61 varsity basketball squad, played an important part, both offensively and defensively, in the success of this year's squad.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

1960-61 was for St. Joseph a year of accomplishment. Thanks to the magnificent ball club molded by Coach Bernie Guilfoyle, we became the proud possessors of the school's first undefeated season.

In a long, exciting eighteen-game schedule, nary a foe was able to solve the Viking attack. This never-to-be-forgotten season included victories over such powers as Akron Central, Collinwood, Euclid, Pittsburgh North Catholic, John Adams, St. Edward, and finally, East High in a hair-raising curtain closer.

Junior Dennis Templin and Sophomore Jerry Ludvik were the floor generals, setting up the plays which gave St. Joseph a record-breaking 72 points per game. Seniors Hank Zalokar, Norm Stih and Larry Pongonis were our "big men." Burley Hank took care of the offensive and defensive rebounding while "Sweeper" Stih excited fans and discouraged foes with his consistently accurate hook shooting and tip-ins. Pongonis contributed to the Vikings zenith scoring with his outside jump shot, the best on the squad. The "surprise package" of this year's Viking quintet was Senior Harry Waldron, the fellow who came through when the chips were down.

In a weekly rating of the area's high school teams, a rating consisting of 106 schools, our undefeated cagers placed second. This was made possible through the combined efforts of team and student body. 1960-61 saw not only the greatest team to privilege the halls of St. Joseph, but also the finest school spirit to brighten the minds and hearts of every loyal Viking.

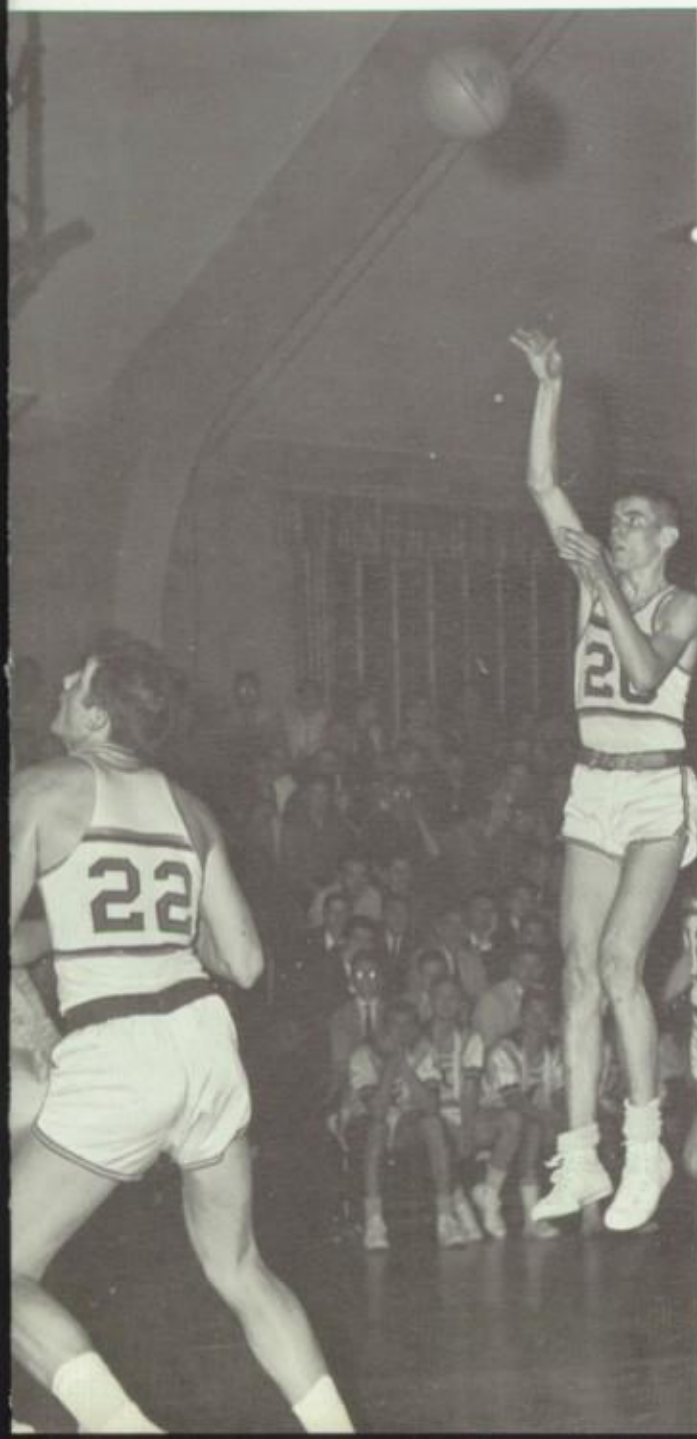

Finally, the words, "Thanks coach," must be expressed, for without the undying patience and unlimited knowledge of Mr. Guilfoyle, the success of St. Joseph would have been held to a minimum.

District and Sectional Champions

Dale Masino gets the rebound and then two points.

Dynamite Denny Templin leads the team in the number of assists and points scored and was chosen to the Cleveland Press All-Scholastic Team and Cleveland's All-Catholic All-Star Team.

Every year at St. Joseph, toward the latter stages of February, a state of frenzy is aroused as the Vikings enter the state high school basketball tournament. This tournament, which includes hundreds of glory-hungry high school cage teams, divides itself from the start into sectionals.

Coach Bernie Guilfoyle's top-seeded crew, rated 10th in the state, began their fabulous tourney drive in a match against a small but scrappy West Geauga team. With excellent performances coming from dead-eyes Dennis Templin and Harry Waldron, the Vikings chalked up their 19th consecutive victory, burying the Geauga County entry 92-42 in the Euclid Class AA Sectional.

With the other sectional hopeful rapidly eliminated, our undefeated ball club found itself pitted against a very aggressive squad from Glenville, the winner to be awarded the sectional trophy and a trip to district play. It was not until the final moments, following four hectic quarters of top-flight basketball that St. Joe's won the ticket to the Eastlake North Districts. A clutch basket by Captain Hank Zalokar, whose rugged rebounding kept the Viking forces intact, coupled with outstanding efforts from the floor general Denny Templin and lanky center Norm Stih, supplied the necessary 60-54 margin and jolted Glenville's tournament ambitions.

Coach Guilfoyle's hustlers found the district opener a relatively easy contest, disposing a highly touted Ashtabula Harbor quintet, 69-53. However, with East High also victorious, it meant a rematch between these two powerhouses which only four weeks previously ended in a close 74-71 Viking season-ending victory.

Naturally the only two desires of the disgruntled East Senate power were to become the first team to defeat St. Joseph and to be entered in the Regionals, the stage of tourney play in which only 16 teams remain alive in the state. However, the well-coached Viking five had plans of their own and the less-fortunate Blue Bombers were faced with the consequences. Combining the forces of Templin, Larry Pongonis, Zalokar, and Stih, St. Joe's thrust itself into the "Sweet Sixteen" tourney elite with a strong second half attack sending the East Bombers home thoroughly ruffled, 65-56.

The distinguished Viking squad met a determined Warren Harding team in the Regional Semi-final and the result, thanks to a sparkling performance from "Sophomore Sensation," Gerry Ludvik, was the mighty St. Joseph's 23rd victory, 57-53, as opposed to no defeats.

Cleveland's city champions, the tall and well seasoned Scarabs from East Tech, posed as the last hurdle to an unprecedented Columbus trip by our widely respected team. Entering the game as slight underdogs, team and fans felt only disappointment and no shame in losing their first game, in a thriller, 50-47. Larry Pongonis was the game's outstanding player as his long jump shots continually kept St. Joe's within striking distance.

It is with great pride that we remember this 1960-61 edition of Viking basketball, for their accomplishments of 23 victories before defeat, a rating of number ten in the state and number two in the city, and a position among only eight state survivors from a tournament starting field of hundreds, have been unmatched in Viking history.

RIFLE CLUB

The Rifle Club, under the moderation of Bro. INTRAMURALS

For the boys who are not able to compete on St. Joseph's varsity teams, the school offers probably the finest intramural program in Cleveland. With the addition of a ping-pong tournament to the long list of events which include basketball, track, bowling, softball, and volleyball, there is no excuse for a student not to participate in the intramural program. With the tremendous number of bowlers that participate, it is a necessity to have two intramural leagues, one on Monday and the other on Wednesday.

As the snow melts and the sun shines bright, the call "Play Ball" is heard on the sunny shores of Lake Erie as the softball tourneys begin. With the introduction of an intramural program with Cathedral Latin, the school is assured of a lively and spiritual intramural program.

FEATURES

When looking back upon our high school years many things will come to mind; the snowy days we were late for class, the homework, the rallies, the retreats, the football and basketball games, the teachers, and the detentions, but among the foremost events in our memory will be the dances. Highlights this year were the Homecoming Dance, basketball dances, the Junior-Senior Dance, the Junior Class Dance, and, of course, the Senior Prom.

HOMECOMING

There is a time each autumn when all the Vikings, past and present, get together. This time of renewing acquaintances and making new friends is, of course, Homecoming. And Homecoming naturally means a queen. Our 1960 queen, Ruth Gaidziunas of Villa Angela, and attendants Kathi Evans of Regina and Therese Franey of Ursuline were chosen at a rally November 3, and presided at the Homecoming game, November 4 and the Homecoming Dance November 25.

Attendant Therese Franey and co-captain Bill Valis could have danced all night.

Bob Ross wonders if his vote for Kathy will be counted.

Like Cool!

MIXERS

"Oh! So Dreamy."

TOM SAWYER

1961 saw many firsts at St. Joseph. Among them was the first musical in the school's short history. "Tom Sawyer" was presented on the Viking stage in February with Ralph Henry, Joanne Habjan, Daniel Marsho, and Margaret Hudson playing the leads of Tom Sawyer, Becky Thatcher, Huckleberry Finn, and Aunt Polly, respectively.

High praise was had for the entire cast with special applause going to Mrs. Otto Broz, who personally made all the girls' costumes, and Mr. Charles Wanda and senior James Whitmer, of the art department, for the outstanding scenery.

The make-up room was a busy place before each performance.

From hamburgers, hot dogs and pizza to steak, potatoes, and apple pie, the cafeteria staff does their best to keep the Vikings satisfied. With varied menus and moderate prices, what more could a growing boy ask for?

A very important yet little mentioned part of every school is the maintenance department. They diligently go about their tasks of keeping the buildings warm in winter, repairing broken windows and desks, keeping the grounds up, and, in general, keeping the home of the Vikings a picturesque institute of learning.

School maintenance is a never-ending job but Mr. Starman and Mr. Jevnikar don't seem to mind.

O.K., Sarge, I'll carry it.
